Crows' Nest Pass Coal Goes Up

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 18.—A good deal of interest was taken on the stock market in an advance in Crows' Nest Pass Coal, which came into prominence for the first time since the war began. The stock was selling at 50, when the market closed in July last year. It opened today at 50, and advanced to 55, closing at the latter price.

The mayor of Athabasca is said to have a capital idea. We all need capital ideas at the present time.

Blairmore Red Cross

$20.20 was netted for the Red Cross Fund at the Sanatorium Tennis Tournament, over and above expenses. The Executive wish to extend hearty thanks to the management and staff of the Sanatorium for the convenience and help given to the ladies on the two afternoons of the Tournament.

Very encouraging comments have been made on both the quality and quantity of the work of the Local Branch, it being considered, so we are assured both from headquarters and from private sources, among the very best that comes from any of the Alberta Branches—this for our encouragement and help in justice to our Head Supervisor.

A Hun Saves A Canadian

The Frederick Glenier has the following: A German prisoner who didn't want to be blown up by mines which his comrades had left in the trenches captured by the 10th Canadian Battalion at the battle of Festubert told his captors that the trenches were mined in front of them to cut the wire.

That was all that saved Corporal Ernest Penty, son of Mr. W. T. H. Penty, proprietor of the Empire Theatre of this city, and other Frederick boys in the 10th Battalion from a terrible death on that occasion and is one of the many thrilling incidents graphically described in an interesting letter just received by Mr. Penty from his son.

Corp. Penty who enlisted with the 10th Battalion in the Canadian west and has seen a lot of fighting also sends the first news that Jacob Vezel and James Jones, two other Frederick boys, are in hospital, the former suffering from trouble with his feet and the latter having suffered from epileptic fits resulting from excitement and the injuries which he suffered when his head was split open and he was almost killed at one of the pulp mills on the St. Croix river several years ago.

[The above may be of interest, as two Blairmore boys, James Hore and Patrick O'Connell, were members of the 10th Battalion.]

No Relief Next Winter

Edmonton, Alberta, August 16th, 1915.

Sir: I understand that a considerable amount of help is required in the harvest fields this year, and I would suggest that the unemployed of your district should be notified to this effect, so that they may avail themselves of the opportunity.

Royal Edward Sunk With 900 Souls

London, Aug. 17.—The sinking in the Aegean sea by a German submarine of the transport steamer Royal Edward, with heavy loss of life, has spoiled the record of the British navy of having transported hundreds of thousands of men across the seas without the destruction of one troop ship. On two previous occasions transporters have been attacked. The wayfarer was torpedoed by a submarine in the Irish sea but the vessel was not sunk and only five lives were lost. The Manitoba was attacked by a Turkish torpedo boat in the Aegean sea and although the ship was not damaged 54 lives were lost through the breaking of a davit as a boat was being lowered. The loss of the Royal Edward may be a serious one at this moment. The men it carried were not part of a new expeditionary force, but were reinforcements for the 29th division, which has been on the Gallipoli peninsula since the first landing and which received such high praise from Gen. Sir Hamilton in his report on the sinking of the battleship Majestic on May 27 that the German submarines which made the long trip to the Dardanelles have scored a success.

The destruction of the Royal Edward is a likely delay to the operations of the British navy, for with the British reinforcements in the east and the continuance of the Italian negotiations necessary for achieving something definite in the attack on the Dardanelles is growing greater.

London, Aug. 17.—The British transport Royal Edward has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. Announcement to this effect was made officially today. Six hundred men were saved out of 1372 troops and 220 other persons on board.

The text of the announcement follows: "The British transport Royal Edward was sunk by an enemy submarine in the Aegean last Sunday morning. According to the information at present available the transport had on board 32 military officers and 1350 troops, in addition to the ship's crew of 220 officers and men.

"The troops consisted mainly of reinforcements for the 29th division and details of the Royal Army Medical Corps. "Full information has not yet been received but it is known that about 600 have been saved.

Constantinople, Aug. 17.—Official announcement was made today that a German submarine had torpedoed and sunk the British transport Royal Edward in the Dardanelles. The transport was sunk by a single torpedo, sinking in seven minutes after it was struck.

The loss of life is believed to have been heavy, though other vessels helped to pick up the survivors.

A dispatch on Wednesday stated that there were no Canadians on board the Royal Edward.

Cost of Plebiscite is High

Over ten thousand cheques are being issued by J. D. Hunt, clerk of the executive council, who had charge of the prohibition plebiscite. The cheques will total between $150,000 and $200,000. Mr. Hunt expects to have every bill paid within two weeks. Accounts from twelve constituencies are now being audited.

The cost of submitting to the people a vote under the direct legislation act is very heavy and the wisdom becomes apparent of the clause in the act requiring a reasonable percentage of signatures to a petition necessitating the submitting of the question involved to a vote of the people. It is estimated that at least half a million dollars was expended in the recent election.

The Oddfellows Grand Lodge met at Charlottetown, P.E.I., last week.

I have also to again impress upon you that it is not the intention of the Government to grant any relief during next winter, so that it will be well for any who are in poor circumstances to obtain work now in order to help them over the winter.

Your obedient servant,
JOHN T. STIRLING,
Chief Inspector of Mines

Ottawa Adopts Stern New War Measures

Ottawa, August 9.—All restrictions upon recruiting which have hitherto been in force have been abolished by the militia council and the government here. No longer will a man be prevented from enlisting because his wife objects. No longer will the parents of a minor have power to stop him from enlisting if he desires and no longer will discharge be granted on receipt of $15 to men who change their mind and desire to leave the forces. All such conditions have been wiped out.

"We are at war," said Senator Longwell, acting Minister of Militia, in explanation today, "and we have decided to adopt the same regulations in connection with recruiting as the British have in force."

In the past the Department has been bombarded with protests from the wives of men who have joined and these protests had to be recognized. As a result of such protests it is estimated that several hundred men who mobilized at Valcartier were sent home. The provision was also subject to many abuses and in a considerable number of cases men used their wives as shelter behind whom to excuse their own desire to leave after having enlisted. Many made the excuse that it was useless to join, because after their enlistment their wives would request their release and it would be immediately granted. These diverse excuses heretofore will not be recognized.

Under the new regulations men who were formerly discharged owing to the requests of their wives, if they desire, be able to offer themselves again. In the past a minor between the ages of 18 and 21 required the consent of his parents before he could enlist, and in a considerable number of cases he had enlisted his discharge would be granted. In the future, if a man is of military age, 18 to 28, no one can interfere with his joining the colors.

In the past a man who had enlisted could, with the consent of his commanding officer, purchase his discharge for the sum of $15. These were cases where men had joined one day and the next day recanted. There were other cases where men who joined, tired of the discipline enlisted upon them and desired to get out. In the future discharge will not be purchasable, and a man once he has joined will be there to stay for the duration of the war. Deserters will be dealt with by Court Martial.

Alberta First in Line of Recruits

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—According to an unofficial estimate made here Alberta holds first place in the percentage of her population recruited since the war broke out, Manitoba and Saskatchewan coming second and British Columbia third. The estimate is based on a total 105,000 men enlisted in the Dominion, though this total has now been considerably increased.

The figures are as follows:

Ontario, with a population of 2,521,274, recruited 36,300, or 1.44 per cent.

Quebec with a population of 2,003,282, recruited 13,800, or .68 per cent.

The Maritime Provinces, with a population of 967,935, recruited 7800, or .79 per cent.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan, with a population of 898,046, recruited 24,000, or a percentage of 2.78.

British Columbia, with a population of 892,480, recruited 10,000, or 2.55 per cent.

This makes a total of 105,000, recruited from a population of 7,074,650, or 1.48 per cent, of the population of the Dominion enlisted.

On the basis of Alberta's recruiting, Ontario should have raised 95,611 men; Quebec 76,923; Maritime Provinces, 35,548; Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 31,970 and British Columbia, 14,875, or a total for the Dominion of 288,146.

Allowance must, of course, be made for the fact that the population of Alberta has a greater proportion of males of military age than that of the eastern provinces.

GOOD REASON FOR HIS ENTHUSIASM

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially in the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all dealers.

COSTLY TREATMENT.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers.

Blairmore, Alta., Fri., August 20, 1915

We love our enemies, and we have so many of them now that it takes nine-tenths of our time to give them proper attention.

Orders placed in Canada by the British Government in reference to war supplies and now executed or under execution total the enormous sum of $230,000,000 according to an official statement, which are given details of the different articles purchased and their amounts. The trade and commerce department is also collecting information as to orders placed in the Dominion by the other allies. While it is possible to obtain statistics as to supplies directly purchased, there is much difficulty in arriving at even an approximate value in connection with the large amount of indirect buying done here, but the data will be collected if possible. Orders for munitions of war placed in this country by Britain according to the statement, totals $188,183,180. Orders for leather goods, timber and miscellaneous stores, amount to $6,142,205. Some $10,665,490 of clothing and textiles have been ordered here. As regards food and forage the total is $23,397,385, and wagons, etc., to the amount of $925,595 have been bought in the Dominion. Dominion. A great part of these orders has already been shipped, and paid for while a larger part is still under contract for delivery.

The Pull Evil

There is too much political pull in the Canadian army. Many men throughout the pull are holding positions as officers who are entitled by nature or training to rank or command, even a corporal's guard. Officers should be appointed through merit, and not because their rich relatives or political daddies have a pull with the upper powers. We hear many complaints about the way the Vernon camp is conducted, and if they are true we certainly need more brains to rule our common soldiers. Speaking on this subject the Rossland Herald says:

"The scandalous truth of it must be told, is that there is too much politics contained in the brew of Canada's military activity. Without qualifications we see men, because of their political pull, appointed to responsible positions, where their presence at a critical time, may, from their very inexperience, seriously endanger the men under them."

The instance of a young man from Rossland who recently obtained a responsible military position through political influence, is fresh in the minds of residents. If it is necessary to mention other instances, we have only to cast our eyes over the roster of the 24th Battalion and note there the name of an officer, who personally may be a very nice fellow, but who is absolutely unqualified to act in the capacity of paymaster.

Lord Northcliffe, while extreme in many ways, has laid his finger on a very sore spot on the naked body of our empire when he asks if Britain is going to be content to muddle through the present war with these antagonistic influences of individual and political greed sapping the strength from our victor army.

Are we content to muddle along? Let us ask ourselves the question. Are we satisfied to trust the care of the brother and sister Canadians to the tender mercies of a few rapacious wolves? Do not let our hate for Germany blind us to internal conditions that must be rectified before we can concentrate our best energies and strength against the enemy.

Canada is too big and wide and free a country to stand for these things, these petty crimes against patriotism that may prove so vital to the lives of brave men. We, as honest and honorable men, cannot continue them and, irrespective of party, Conservative, Liberal, Socialist or Labor advocates, we must develop our energies to a policy of co-operation, unimpeded by politics, and which is tempered only with the desire to aid Britain's righteous and just ideals and principles.—R. T. Lowery, in The Greenwood Ledger.

Newfoundland's New Passport Regulation

The new law governing passengers going to Newfoundland, which went into effect last Wednesday, caused a ripple of surprise and an little "kicking" on the part of some of the applicants for tickets at the terminus, when they were informed that before landing on Newfoundland soil they were required to have a passport and a photograph. The first to have the distinction of complying with the new law was Mr. Alexander McPherson, of Baddeck, and at one time engaged in business at Glace Bay. One of the applicants for a passport and photo said it was the first time in forty years that he had "this picture taken." Some of the passengers claimed that one dollar for six photos (one costs as much as six) and seventy-five cents for a passport declaration, in addition to the price of a ticket, was a little too much, and that the authorities should take immediate steps to protect the traveller from overcharging in this regard. The new regulation reads as follows: All passengers not residents of Newfoundland and will not be permitted to embark or land in Newfoundland unless holding passports issued not more than two years previously, or some other document satisfactorily establishing nationality or identity. Photograph of passengers must be attached to documents.—North Sydney Herald.

At The Sydney Mines Collieries

The Sydney Mines correspondent of the Herald gives the following version of the stoppage of operations at some of the pits of that locality: "The colliery superintendent notified the officials of the Scotia colliery last week that work in one or two of the extreme sections would be temporarily abandoned, and a number of the employees, mostly young men, not permanent residents of the place were being paid off, while householders and men with families will be given employment elsewhere in connection with other collieries. The notification to stop these sections was anticipated by the men and officials for some time, owing to the small dimensions of the coal seams and reduced production, the cost of which did not compare with the company for continuing the work, or either pay the men in proportion to the labor performed, compared with other parts of the province. It is understood that the difficulties met will be overcome soon, it is decided to drive through the stone barrier, as it is claimed that there is plenty of coal of standard thickness yet undeveloped in the Scotia; and the suspicion that the coal is run out is denied by those whose business it is to know."—Sydney Post.

Cowley Happenings

BORN—At Pincher Creek, on Thursday last, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Swift, a daughter.

J. G. Robinson is home from Sarcee Camp for a month's furlough to help in the harvest.

Mrs. J. Miller, from the oil wells, was a visitor at her sister's, Mrs. J. Bennett, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, of Pincher Creek, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan on Friday last.

A few of the young folks gathered at the home of W. C. Robinson on Monday night and a pleasant time was spent.

We are sorry to have to report the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Swift. Mr. and Mrs. Swift have the sincere sympathy of the community.

We understand several of the farmers of the North Fork were hailed out on Friday last. It is rather disappointing to have the crops out down just when they are about to be harvested.

A number of the boys were down from Sarcee Camp a couple of days this week paying a last farewell to home and friends. As they had received word that they were to leave Thursday, they returned to Calgary Tuesday morning.

HOW THE TROUBLE STARTS

Constipation is the cause of many ailments and disorders that make life miserable. Take Chamberlain's Tablets, keep your bowels regular and you will avoid these diseases. For sale by all dealers.

The towns of Springhill and Joggins Mines, N.S., are moving in the matter of machine guns. In fact the latter town talks of two guns.

McKay-Simpson Nuptials

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. William Simpson, Frank, on Thursday, August 19th, when his daughter, Miss Mary E. Simpson, was united to Mr. H. Dexter McKay, of Gleichen.

The wedding took place at 5:30 sharp, when the bride, leaning on the arm of her father who gave her away, entered the sitting room.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Young, of Frank, in the presence of a large number of friends.

Immediately the bridal party sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper at the close of which the toast to the bride and other speeches were in order.

The happy couple left for Calgary on the 9 p.m. train amid showers of rice and good wishes.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McKay were well known here, and the expressions of good will on the 19th proved their popularity.

Bellevue Happenings

E. C. McDonald has moved into Naylor's house.

Miss Allan, of Cowley, is visiting her sister Mrs. Cook.

Arthur Wyatt was slightly injured in No. 1 mine this week.

A Bursey, who had been visiting in Calgary, has returned home.

W. Shaw, mine inspector, paid his regular visit here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Patterson camped at Lundbreck over Sunday.

Fred Padgett and party spent the week end fishing at South Fork.

W. Park, of Maple Leaf, has taken a position as fire-boss at No. 2 mine.

Mr. Kallury, of Fernie, is visiting here, the guest of Mrs. Janice Hadland.

James Gardie, one of Bellevue's old-timers, left this week for the Old Country.

Angus McDonald, who in here this week and has started to work in No. 1 mine.

E. W. Christie occupied the pulpit at Frank Methodist church on Sunday night last.

Miss Mushkat lectured to a good audience in the Workers' hall on Sunday afternoon.

Elias Lithland is now occupying the house recently vacated by K. Kelly at the dairy.

Thomas Kynastan has joined his family on their homestead in the Peace River district.

Jack Fraser and party, who had been fishing at North Fork, returned home this week.

Mr. Pearson and family have moved to Blairmore, where he has taken a position as pit-boss.

Mrs. Cawthorne has engaged a baker, business having increased so that extra help was necessary.

Rev. Mr. Cook and a number of the boys, who were camping on the mountains, have returned home.

Robert Tennant, who has been a resident here for some time, has moved with his family to Lethbridge.

The Goodwin brothers, Luther and George, who are training at Calgary, are home for a few days visiting their parents.

Fire on Wednesday morning destroyed the residence of G. Purdy at Maple Leaf. Fire is thought to have originated from a spark dropped from a match which apparently came into contact with oil, for in a very few minutes the house was in flames, the occupants barely getting out in their night garb. Nothing whatever of the household effects were saved and the loss to Mr. Purdy is a very serious one as he carried no insurance.

Rev. T. M. Murray, who has been pastor of the Institutional church at Coleman for upwards of five years, leaves this week for a new field in Eastern Canada. On Tuesday night he was tendered a farewell, the event taking place in the church. The party included friends from all over The Pass, who during the term of Mr. Murray's ministry have become very closely associated with him in his work and who watch with interest his career. Several addresses were delivered and Mr. Murray was presented with two large travelling bags and a manuscript case, while a beautiful silver tray with tea set was presented to Mrs. Murray. During his stay in The Pass Mr. Murray was held in the highest esteem, and no better proof of his ability as a preacher could be shown than the large congregation he has always maintained.

A dispatch from Ottawa says—A year of war has cost Canada $90,000,000. The great struggle in which many Canadians have already laid down their lives also is calling for great financial sacrifices. It is costing Canada, in fact, $300,000 a day. Figuring this out even more finely, it will be apparent that Canadians are going down into their pockets to pay the expenses of the present struggle at the rate of nearly $13,000 an hour or about $225 a minute. And the statistician who cares to reduce his calculations to the ultimate unit will discover, of course, that the Canadian financial war clock is ticking at the rate of about $4 per second.
